

Tom Alper Bio

Since 1985 Tom Alper has been a coach, teacher and mentor to thousands of athletes and students in the Western Pennsylvania Area . Virtually every college in this area has had a Kicker, Punter, Long-snapper, Quarterback or Receiver on their roster that had either attended Tom's camps or receive private instruction from Tom. A 1977 graduate of Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Tom was a member of the 1975-76 football team. In 1975 he was First Team All-Conference in Western Pa. State Conference and ECAC First Team selection. Tom still has his name in the record book there for Longest Field Goal (47 yards) and most extra points in a game. (8) In 1978, Tom was an All-League Kicker for the Marlboro Shamrocks in the Eastern Football League and had a try-out with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1979.

Tom has been a speaker four times at the Nike Coach of the Year Football Clinic attended by over 1000 coaches from 10 states. Tom is on staff for the Pittsburgh Steelers Youth Coaches Clinic and their Youth Summer Camps and has also on the staff for the Penn State University Placekicking Camp. Currently, an Elementary Physical Education teacher at the Elizabeth Forward School District, Tom has 10 years teaching experience as a Special Education teacher
